

The image displays ten horizontal writing lines, each designed for calligraphy practice. Each line is composed of three distinct horizontal boundaries: a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line. These lines are stacked vertically, providing a structured space for practicing the 'Cancelleresca' script with a 1.5 mm nib. The entire set of lines is contained within a rectangular frame.